

feedme The best Latin restaurants on Long Island

By Peter M. Gianotti, Corin Hirsch, Erica Marcus and Scott Vogel

Updated July 10, 2019 1:46 PM

Here are Newsday's top 10 Latin restaurants for 2019.

Cafe Buenos Aires

Credit: Doug Young

Cafe Buenos Aires (23 Wall St., Huntington): When Hugo Garcia opened his singular Huntington restaurant in 2007, his goal was to introduce Long Island to the cuisine of his native Argentina, from seafood ceviche and plump, golden empanadas to parrillada mixta (mixed, grilled meats). In the ensuing decade, he's also made Café Buenos Aires one of the Island's most dependable spots for classic tapas (tuna-stuffed piquillo peppers, shrimp in garlic sauce, serrano ham with manchego cheese) as well as Spanish and Latin American specialties such as paella and tacos. The spirited restaurant takes in a dining room, a bar and, when it's balmy, outside tables on Wall Street. As the night progresses, watch for impromptu tangos. More info: 631-603-3600, cafebuenosaires.net

